Hi to whom it may concern,my name is Joe Fisher.I have been a muscian and song writer for several years. I have had songs play'd on over 500 radio stations across the US and other countrys. Having a account with BMI, I look'd up my account. There were no royalty due. I have had my album on internet sites and have had several down loads of course but never have I seen a check for the use and or sell of my profession. I wrote BMI and ask them why was there no dues paid for my songs play'd. There resonce was that if they were log'd on to the station and one of my songs was play'd then I would get a dues. So you mean that they can use your song to entertain a listening audiance,and not pay you for your work,you preform and write. All radio stations,internet sites that use your music should have to keep a log on all songs play'd and a running invoice of the pay and be held accountable for there air time as well as the sell of any material that is rightfully ownd and copy righted. I hope there can be some positve out come for all the artist. yours truly Joe Fisher.
