To whom it may concern:

The only problem with your cause that is you are enabling ip terrorism. i.e. Microsoft and it's patent agreements of linux. Microsoft does not own linux. Microsoft as I understand it has been allegedly adjudicated a monopoly. The DOJ needs to look into the latest agreement with Amazon.

I deeply abhor piracy but ip terrorism is extortion and does not understand that if you can not modify something you do not own it. I no longer purchase anything with a software patent if possible. They should be outlawed. Software patents actually thwart innovation despite the fud to the contrary. I prefer creative commons media over copyrighted media. Most of the commercial media today is trash anyway and not worth buying.

Your goals are lofty, but please remove the corporate blinders from your eyes. Please do not aid and abet the corporate ip terrorism.

Yours,
A screwed over consumer from big business.
