Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Enhancing Coordination of National Efforts in the Arctic”

This executive order reinforces the United States’ commitment to the Arctic and establishes an Arctic Executive Steering Committee to enhance coordination of Federal Arctic policies. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on costs and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include better coordinating national efforts in the Arctic and preparing the Nation for a changing Arctic. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2015. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order are the Departments of State, Defense, Justice, the Interior, Agriculture, and Homeland Security; the Office of the Director of National Intelligence; the Environmental Protection Agency; the National Aeronautics and Space Administration; the National Science Foundation; the Arctic Research Commission; and the Executive Office of the President.
