Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Federal Support for Local Law Enforcement Equipment Acquisition”

This executive order establishes an interagency working group to make recommendations on how to improve Federal support for acquisition of certain equipment by State, local, and tribal law enforcement agencies. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on costs and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include identifying the best means to improve support for the acquisition of equipment by State, local, and tribal law enforcement agencies. Implementing this executive order is anticipated to have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, and no impact on revenues to the Federal Government, in the 5-fiscal year period beginning in fiscal year 2015. The agencies anticipated to be impacted by this executive order are the Departments of the Treasury, Justice, Defense, Homeland Security, the Interior, and Education, and the General Services Administration.
