

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20503

September 14, 2016

Statement from OMB Director Shaun Donovan:

Budgetary Impact Analysis for Executive Order Entitled “Termination of Emergency with Respect to the Situation in or in Relation to Côte d’Ivoire”

This executive order would terminate the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13396 regarding the situation in Côte d’Ivoire. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on costs and revenues to the Federal Government. The benefits of the executive order include furthering the United States’ overall sanctions policy by avoiding the unnecessary use of national emergency authorities. Implementing this executive order would have a de minimis impact on mandatory and discretionary obligations and outlays, as well as on revenues to the Federal Government in the five-fiscal-year period beginning in fiscal year 2017. Agencies anticipated to be impacted by this Executive Order include the Departments of State, the Treasury, and Energy.
